

Basic without bells and whistles!

Model SL495 is the third device of the new model series SL595plus and SL595. Although this model is a basic device without any bells and whistles, it still has all basic functions of a regular cell phone you need. In addition to a very elegant design and rubberised surface for extra grip, this model has other functions such as a camera, torch, FM radio, photo contacts, loud ringtones, keypad announcement of numbers, with all important status messages displayed on the front panel. Bea-fon SL495.....A basic phone that leaves little to be desired.
